KNOW OUR AUDIENCE.

ADAPT TO MEET THEIR NEEDS.

The USAYO smartphone app allows us to ask users where they are struggling. Young women struggle more than young men with anger, criticizing others, forgiveness, jealousy, loneliness, fear, discontentment, discouragement and laziness. Young men struggle more than young women with destructive thoughts, greed, lust, lying, pride and growing spiritually.

Because the communication is confidential, our audience is sharing their deepest struggles plus we can provide scripture to help them where they need it. The results have been life changing. Over 18,000 daily users of our apps.
