Scotty Carter having a post game devotional with the East Coast Sox

USAYO's Adrian Branch recently spent time in Northwest Arkansas. Because of COVID, he spoke at a virtual Fields of Faith and was also able to speak to middle school, high school and college teams. There were 22 first time commitments to Christ.

USAYO's Byron Samuels with the Samaritan's Purse at the Navajo Nation food distribution event.

USAYO's John Kopta recently spoke to the Charleston High School football team, where 13 players accepted Christ!

Fleceia Comeaux at the Meet at the Cross event at the Pasadena Police Station. She states, "The officers have intentionally been going to the basketball courts, soccer, shaking hands with people and more. It's been an incredible partnership, so it's just as important we intentionally meet them at their place and love them back."

USAYO's Scott Carter presented the gospel to the Pontotoc Middle School in Mississippi and the whole team gave their hearts to the Lord!
