Message from a teacher of a homeschool coop group... "Today was an exciting day for our classroom! We had the honor of hosting Leah O'Brien Amico, a three-time Olympic gold medalist, who generously took time out of her schedule to visit with the boys and girls. She shared her story, answered thoughtful questions, and gave us a glimpse into her journey of faith, including how she came to know Jesus at a young age.

Leah's message about trusting in God, stepping outside of her comfort zone, and committing to working hard was both uplifting and inspiring. Her visit with us served as a powerful reminder that our unique gifts and talents are meant to glorify God in all we do and to always hold strong to our faith. We are so grateful to Leah for her visit and for sharing her story with us—it's a day we'll always remember!"
